What to Wear to the Theater for the Performance

All students in the Evening Performance will need to arrive at the theater in street clothing with their hair done. All costumes for the Evening Performance are transported to the theater directly from our studios. Students should carry all shoes, tights, leotards and accessories in a bag with their name labeled on everything possible.

Recommended Make-up for all Dancers

Make-up is not needed for the dress rehearsal. For the performance we highly recommend dancers visit Jam Cosmetics Website, www.jamcosmetics.net for easy video instructions on applying stage make-up.

About Cameras and Digital Recordings

Please no flash photography or unauthorized recording of the performance. Our Year-End Performance will be professionally recorded. Information regarding the purchase of digital recordings will be available through Southern NH Dance Theater.

Backstage Reminders

Food is not allowed in the theater. Dancers may bring water and snacks that are not messy to be eaten in the dressing rooms. Sorry, no eating while in costume! All dress rehearsals are closed to families and the general public. Please no jewelry & no nail polish.

Covid Policies

For the health and safety of all students, staff, and families we will continue to follow any and ALL COVID Policies and Procedures that are in place or maybe be required at the time of this performance. Families will be notified in advance.

Participation

Please note that participation in our Year-End Performances is optional.

Production Fee

The Production Fee for all students participating in the Evening Performance is $250. This fee is inclusive of studio and theater rehearsal time, costume rentals and choreographers' fees. If your child is participating in the Evening Performance your account will automatically be debited a Performance Fee of $250 on February 1, 2023 unless our offices are notified otherwise. Production fees for students registering after February 1st are due at the time of registration.

Tickets

Admission to all Year End Performances requires one ticket per person per seat. Information regarding ticket prices and ticket sales will be available closer to the performance dates.

Shoes & Tights

All dancers in the Evening Performance will be wearing costumes owned by Southern NH Dance Theater. Costume fittings will be scheduled at the studios as needed. Students are responsible for providing their own shoes, tights and undergarments.
